Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed on October 14, 2004. Previous office action contained claims 1-12, and 16-21. Applicant amended claim 1 and canceled claim 6. Amendment filed on October 14, 2004 have been entered and made of record.

2. Claims 1-5,7-12, and 16-21 are allowed.

3. Claims include limitations that the prior art of record does not appear to teach or render obvious the claimed limitations as recited below.

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Stern reference disclose a virtual machine means which includes a virtual function processor and function processor instructions for controlling operation of the device, Java Virtual Machine (JVM) provides a Java interpreter and runtime environment on top of processor hardware, which can be implemented as a microprocessor, and enables Java bytecode to be executed as operating system call on any processor regardless of the operation system. However, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest individually or in combination as stated in claims 1,16, and 18 "a virtual processor, which is arrange to be called by the function processor and which is arranged to carry out the message handling tasks of assembling, disassembling, and comparing the message under the direction of the message instruction means that is arranged to provide directions for operation of the virtual message processor," and in combination with other limitations as set forth in the independent claims. Claims 2-5,7-12, and 17, and 19-21 are allowed due to dependent claims.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
